New meeting venue for Jackson Area BPW

Jackson Area BPW next regular meeting on June 3, 2013, will meet at Baudo's Restaurant, 559 Wiley Parker Road, Jackson, Tennessee, at 5:15 p.m. We will have the back room exclusive to us and we will be able to order dinner from the menu. We will be able to network while we eat (or just visit if you like), with our speakers to begin their presentations at 6:00 p.m.

When you come into the restaurant, please let them know at the front that you are there for the BPW meeting. They will show you to the meeting area.

Established in 1956, Business and Professional Women's (BPW) Foundation became the first foundation dedicated to conducting research and providing information solely about working women. Today, BPW Foundation is transforming workplaces by focusing on issues that impact working women, families and employers.

Vision

To partner to create successful workplaces for women, their families and employers.

BPW Foundation Mission

To empower working women to achieve their full potential and to partner with employers to build successful workplaces through education, research, knowledge and policy.

History

The legacy of Business and Professional Women began in 1919. While the organization has transformed over time, the legacy and vision of Working Women Helping Women Work remains intact.

Happy Spring

Spotlight on Scholarship Winner Paula Conway

Jackson Area Business & Professional Women would like to congratulate the winner of the Margaret Faulkner Scholarship – Paula Conway. Paula is a resident of Trezevant, Tennessee and is a student at West Tennessee Business College, studying to become a medical office specialist. After being laid off from the Milan Army Ammunition Plant, Paula joined her daughter at WTBC. She currently carries a 98.4 GPA and is described as “always displays a positive attitude, maintains a professional appearance, and works to not only make her own life better, but to improve the lives of those she comes in contact with.”

Congratulations to Paula Conway!!!
