JABPW Survey

The Jackson Area BPW Board has sent out a survey to all members for everyone's opinion on several issues. If you have not responded to the survey, you may do so by going to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/jacktnbpw>. Your opinion matters. Please take the time to complete the survey (it is anonymous). It only takes a few minutes. For those who have completed the survey – thank you.

Established in 1956, Business and Professional Women's (BPW) Foundation became the first foundation dedicated to conducting research and providing information solely about working women. Today, BPW Foundation is transforming workplaces by focusing on issues that impact working women, families and employers.

Vision

To partner to create successful workplaces for women, their families and employers.

BPW Foundation Mission

To empower working women to achieve their full potential and to partner with employers to build successful workplaces through education, research, knowledge and policy.

History

The legacy of Business and Professional Women began in 1919. While the organization has transformed over time, the legacy and vision of Working Women Helping Women Work remains intact.

Spotlight on member Jacque Hillman

Jackson Area Business & Professional Women would like to congratulate Jacque Hillman on being awarded the Kay Culbertson Mentoring Award for 2015. Jacque has always put forth 100% effort in everything she does, from the smallest detail to the largest project. She encourages women of all ages to always do their best with all they've got.

Congratulations again to Jacque as our BPW Mentor of the Year!!! An honor very well deserved.
